VAN-POOLING is transportation between work and an employee's residence, but only in a "commuter highway vehicle." A commuter highway vehicle is a highway vehicle with a seating capacity of six or more adults not including the driver, and at least 80 percent of the mileage use of which can reasonably be expected to be for purposes of transportation of employees between work and residence.

TRANSIT PASS means any pass, token, fare card, voucher, or similar item that entitles the employee to transportation, provided that such transportation is on mass transit facilities or in the type of highway vehicle eligible for use in van-pooling.
